Re: Rights of voting members

Dear Mr. Sherman:

My clients have advised me that the Committee may intend to exclude lawful voting members from attending meetings of the LAGOP. This concern would appear to be real based upon how the committee functioned at the last meeting on March 9, when voting members and Ex-Officio members were forcibly removed from the proceedings.

I assume that this was a one time event that will not be permitted to reoccur. Voting members and Ex-Officio members are always permitted to notice and the right to attend and participate in all regularly scheduled and special meetings of the corporation pursuant to the by-laws of the LAGOP and the rules of the CAGOP, as well as California law.

My clients will be in attendance at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the LAGOP. Please do not force the issue by excluding their participation.

Sincerely,

STEVEN C. BAILEY
